Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 6/21/06.
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

Disposition of Claims

- 4) ☒ Claim(s) 28-31 and 33-44 is/are pending in the application.
- 4a) Of the above claim(s) 33, 35, 36, 38 and 39 is/are withdrawn from consideration.

DETAILED ACTION

Examiner acknowledges receipt of request for extension of time, request for reconsideration and remarks. Claims 28-31 and 33-44 are pending. Claims 33, 35, 36, 38 and 39 are withdrawn from consideration.

Claim Objections

1. The objection of claim 34 under 37 CFR 1.75(c) as being in improper form because a multiple dependent claim should refer to other claims in the alternative only. See MPEP § 608.01(n) is withdrawn in view of the amendment to claim 34.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112/New Matter

2. The rejection of claims 28-31 and 33-44 under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph is withdrawn in view of applicant's persuasive argument because formula IV is present in the as filed specification and is thus not new matter.
3. Claim 43 remain rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.
4. Claim 43 recites the limitation "the soil mobility" in line 1. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim. Although, claim 34 has been deleted from the claim 43, there is still no antecedence for "the soil mobility" because the claim has not previously referred to the mobility of the soil. Correction is respectfully requested.

There is no previous reference to any mobility of the soil and it thus lacks support in the claim before its recitation.

The term "the" before soil may be deleted to overcome the rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claims 28-31, 34, 37 and 40-42 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Mikami et al. (US 4,465,756).

Mikami discloses polyurea or polyurethane polythiourea capsule shell and a process of preparing the shell (column 4, lines 27-61); the shell material is a polycondensation product of polyisocyanate, polyol and water or polycondensation product of polyisocyanate, polyol and polyamine (column 4, lines 62-65); droplets of toner particles and dye materials are encapsulated in the core of the capsule shell (abstract; column 4, lines 66-68; column 5, lines 8-11; column 8, lines 20-43; column 10, lines 16-50). The outer surface of the shell is provided with surface active agent selected from the group consisting of sulfonate, carboxylate, phosphate, amine, quaternary ammonium salt and pyridinium salt (column 3, lines 60-65). The surface-active agents can be anionic and an example is sodium tetradecylamidophenylsulfonate (column 11, lines 49-57), which reads on the sulfonate polyester polyol.

7. Claims 28, 29, 34 and 40-43 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Seitz et al. (US 5,925,595).

Seitz discloses a process of preparing a microencapsulated composition and the method comprises combining triisocyanate, aliphatic diisocyanate and polyamine and incorporating agricultural chemical such as herbicide within the microcapsule (abstract; column 2, line 21 to column 4 line 20). Sulfonated naphthalene-formaldehyde condensates, modified starches (column 4, lines 10-20) and calcium and sodium lignosulfonates (column 8, lines 13 and 14) are colloids that are included in the polyurea shell.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

8. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

9. Claim 44 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Mikami et al. (US 4,465,756).

Mikami is described above. Mikami does not disclose the specific ratio of the total –NCO moieties in the wall-forming material to the total reactive moieties in the surface-modifying compound. However, there is no demonstration that the recited ratio provides unexpected result to the resin formed by the reaction. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to prepare the composition of Mikami according to the process of Mikami. One having ordinary skill in the art would have been motivated to use the specific amounts of the isocyanate compound and the surface-modifying agent that is expected to yield the desired resin for encapsulating the active agent.

The rejection and the claims:

Claim 28 is generic to microcapsule where the surface modifying compound can be any one of the varied compounds. Although, applicant elected formula IV, the claims has any of the other possible surface modifying agents, for example sulfonate polyester polyol. The search was extended to the polyester polyol and the rejection above looks at the sulfonate polyester polyol and not the formula IV.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's argument that Mikami does not disclose formula IV or that sodium tetradecylamidophenylsulfonate does not meet the structure of formula IV is persuasive and therefore, the argument is not addressed.

Applicant's argument with respect to Seitz is also persuasive since the colloids in Seitz does not meet the structural limitation of formula IV.
